

State of Our DeKalb Animals 2 Address and Luncheon
May 16th, 2025, 10:30 am to 1:00 pm
Emory Conference Center Hotel

Proposed Budget

Venue Rental - Lullwater Ballroom	Fee Waived
Production/ In House AV	$1735.60
- Possible Additional AV Needs	$400
Food and Drinks, including linens	$7817.67
Decor	$300
Printing, Signage, and Banners	$500
Logoed Gifts - SODA Poop Bag Holders	$400
Keynote Speaker - Cole Thaler	$500
Total Expenses	$11,253.27-11,653.27

"If we are committed to helping our neighbors thrive, we must recognize and protect the human-animal connection. The bonds between people of all ages and the animals in our lives are fundamental to our sense of wholeness. True solutions to the human and animal welfare crises we face must center the preservation of these bonds at the core of our work."

-Cole Thayler, Keynote Speaker, Manager of Pets in Crisis for Atlanta Humane