

Peggy Hobdy Bio

Peggy Hobdy is a retired Coca-Cola Senior Business Systems Analyst. She has a background in marketing; small business consulting and development; software development and management; and project management and leadership. Ms. Hobdy has worked for public, private and government entities in both an employee and independent consultant capacity.

Ms. Hobdy has been a long-time volunteer and advocate for the elderly, youth, disabled, underprivileged and homeless. She has done volunteer work for the Special Olympics, public school systems, Habitat for Humanity, Senior Connections, Migrant and Farm Workers, DeKalb County Department of Family and Children Services, DeKalb County Public Safety, DeKalb County Community Council, The Urbane Flower Human Trafficking and others.

She holds a B.B.A. from Cleveland State University's James J. Nance College of Business and is ITIL IT Service Management Certified. Ms. Hobdy achieved the status of International Toastmasters Competent Leader. She also fulfilled the roles of Secretary, VP of Membership, and VP of Public Relations for Coca-Cola Bottle IT Toastmasters. Ms. Hobdy is a 2014 graduate of the DeKalb Neighborhood Leadership Institute. She is a 2017 graduate of DeKalb Micro-Enterprise Start-Up. Ms. Hobdy is a founding Member, prior Secretary, Communications Coordinator, Membership Chair and Public Safety Chair of the South DeKalb Improvement Association, Inc. (SDIA).

Ms. Hobdy is passionate about family, youth, seniors, education, public safety, and economic development. She loves antiques, the arts, interior decorating, music, and cooking.