

SCOPE OF WORK

Shows in Homes: Prisontown

Out of Hand will collaborate with Commissioner Ted Terry's office to provide a Shows in Homes event on Immigration for Dekalb County residents. Shows in Homes: Prisontown will shed light on the nation's immigration crisis.

DETAILS:

Out of Hand Theater will provide:

- Shows in Homes for unlimited participants between January 23 and April 5, 2026
- Location: Super District 6 has sourced these locations
- Agenda: Curtain speech (or welcome), Viewing of a custom play, Talkback with the artist and a community partner to activate community action.
- Time: 2 hours

We Hold These Truths

Out of Hand Theater proudly presents We Hold These Truths, a theatrical and civic engagement initiative commemorating America250. Using the power of art as a tool for community healing and building a path forward, this project fosters national reflection and conversation about the evolving meaning of America—past, present, and future.

Out of hand Theater will provide:

- One event for up to 100 participants between July 1, 2026 and December 31, 2026
- Location: Super District 6 has sourced these locations
- Agenda: Welcome, Performance of an original 10-minute play, Short talk to introduce terminology, Facilitated small group conversation at each table, and a full group closing
- Custom dialogue guide for conversation
- Time: 2 hours.

GOALS

- Increased understanding of and empathy for the experiences of others.
- Increased ease in engaging in civic dialogue.
- Strengthening community and belonging with neighbors.
- Increased ease in naming and discussing complex community issues.
- Concrete steps to action with a local community partner.

PRICING

GRAND TOTAL is $8700.00

We Hold These Truths: Total: $7500

- Project Direction - $1,400
- Artistic Direction & Hiring - $1,475
- Staff & Admin Support - $2,125
- Facilitator Hiring/Training - $2,500

Shows in Homes - Total: $1,200

Price is subject to increase with changes.