1. Ed Williams, Concerned Citizens for Effective Government - My Name is Ed Williams, I am the chair of Concerned Citizens for Effective Government. When police officers and other officials violate the law, no matter the color. It erodes public trust. Today, my heart goes out to the Ahmaud Arbery and Georgia Floyd families. Both of these men deserve justice. Citizens have to say something when they see government officials violating the law. It seems to be common practice to bend the law while some go along to get along and remain silent. We did not come this far, for you to gain a seat at the table, in order for you to act against the interest of the people, while the community struggles to survive. Citizens are waking up to how government officials have abused their authority. The police are not above the law and neither are commissioners. African Americans fought in every American war and do not need to be lectured about the meaning of patriotism, loyalty or when to protest. Black Americans are twice as likely as white Americans to be unarmed when police kill them. Furthermore, Black males aged 15-34 were nine times more likely than other Americans to be killed by law enforcement officers. It is not okay for police to abuse and kill African Americans. Police brutality has historically been a problem against African Americans and other minorities. We need to address the problem and not resort to calling citizens unpatriotic. Those who have not had the experience are blind to the outrage and frustration that many African Americans and people of color feel about the unequal treatment, as we know too well, even at the hands of those who are the same color. We should make the words in the Pledge of Allegiance ring true for all. "I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all." Dr. King once stated that "The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy." Muhammad Ali in the 1960's refused to go to fight in the Vietnam war because of his religious beliefs. He believed that his fight was here in the US for equal rights. He took his fight all the way to the Supreme Court where he won. Thurgood Marshall, the first African American Supreme Court Justice understood that the US Constitution was what made American great, not the flag. He understood that being a citizen meant that you had the protection of the Constitution. Police Officers like elected officials take an oath to uphold the Constitution. The commission should review the policies of the county police department and make the needed changes to address police brutality and police misconduct complaints. There needs to be more police training, better equipment, and punishment for those police officers that violate the public trust and our civil rights. Can we all just get Along?

2. Stephen Binney, (no address) - Good Morning Commissioners, like Maxcolm X, "I don't favor violence. If we could bring about recognition and respect of our people by peaceful means, well and good. Everybody would like to reach their objectives peacefully. But I'm also a realist. The only people in this country who are asked to be non-violent are black people." These words were spoken over 50 years ago and still ring true today. In America blacks have been beaten, raped, enslaved, jailed and murdered over the last 400 years. From emancipation to the election of Obama has the level of danger in being a black women or man in today's society changed? The new paint and trimmings on our society may make things look better but the foundations on which America's house is built are ugly and continue to crumble everyday. Enslaved in chains or beaten by police and redlined by banks, One may be easier to justify but I don't see much difference. There are more black men and women in our jails and prisons today than the number of all the slaves in 1850. 30 percent of black males have been arrested by age 18. This grows to 49 percent by age 23. The risk of imprisonment for black men ages 20-34 without a high school degree stands at 68 percent. For boys born in 2001, the lifetime probability of incarceration is estimated to be 32 percent for young black men. How can a society be considered free and equal when it puts a third of it's young black men in jail? How do you stop the systemic racism that has been one of the bedrocks of white society for hundreds of years? I believe the depth of the systemic racism problem in our country was truly revealed in New York City. There, a liberal white lady called the police on a black birdwatcher because he asked her to leash her dog. Why would she even consider doing that? She knew who the police would believe given a choice between a white woman or a black man. Everyone knows this is true and it is a textbook definition of white systemic racism. Even Dekalb County is not immune from increasing racism. Segregation has been increasing in our county over the last 40 plus years. Our schools are more segregated and becoming more so. Our neighborhoods are getting more segregated every day. Not by law but through systemic racism. Systemic racism is the unseen root which feeds the day to day ugliness we see in today's society. Protesting the atrocities needs to continue but the real work will be in reeducating the white mind set in its daily interactions with people of color. A road not taken so far and a long hard journey to be sure. I will not get to the destination but perhaps our grandchildren or our great grandchildren will.

3. Mr. Timmell Carter, 530 Joseph E. Lowery Boulevard NW Atlanta, GA 30314 - My question is when will the Board of Commissioners address my concerns and help fix the problems of decades of police misconduct, cover-up, and corruption with Dekalb County Police Department? I am a disabled 47 year old, man that was attacked on the streets of Dekalb County 17 years ago by a Dekalb County Police Officer. A group of police officers knew about it and helped the officer cover it up. I was then charged with a misdemeanor crime, put in a jail for weeks and when I was released was homeless. I have been addressing police corruption with Dekalb County for 17 years to every department, agency and official possible. As of yet, NO ONE in Dekalb County has helped me to get these officers fired, arrested and charged with crimes against me and innocent victims like me. My fear is that the officer and officers have attacked more people, lied and made false charges and put innocent people in jail or worse in prison or k
