BIO

Chris Anglin is an experienced Information Technology professional and entrepreneur with over 25 years of experience in the technology and real estate industries. He is a respected technologist with a track record for innovating and improving operational efficiencies for companies ranging from startups to Fortune 500. Chris currently serves as the Customer Data Analytics Platform Manager for Southern Company. He has started and runs multiple companies, including DeKalb-based companies Beyond Physical Therapy, LLC, and The Anglin Group, LLC. Through his leadership, The Anglin Group has provided affordable housing to the DeKalb County community since 1999. His latest venture, Beyond Physical Therapy, LLC, provides outpatient physical therapy services.

Raised in Durham, NC, Chris now resides in Decatur, GA with his wife, Victoria, and two daughters. Chris enjoys spending time with his family, coaching basketball, participating in outdoor activities, and sharpening his photography skills outside of work.
