

Proposal for services 2023

Office of DeKalb County District 6 Commissioner Ted Terry

Scope of Work

EDUCATION & ENGAGEMENT - $20,000

- Host (4) FOUR organized tours OR activations (ie., community planting event) of the Clarkston Library site free to DeKalb residents through December 2023.
- Host up to (5) FIVE private tours for DeKalb County Builders, HOA members, Developers, Landscapers and other Professionals interested in learning about Productive Urban Landscapes
- Create educational materials and one sheets for tour/event participants to explain productive urban landscaping and their importance in addressing food insecurity and combating climate change.

THE DEKALB GREEN NEW DEAL SUMMIT: - $15,000

- Develop and operate the Productive Urban Landscape track for the DeKalb Green New Deal summit (name pending) in October, 2023.
 - Develop the track, including scheduling all speakers, workshops, and events
 - Create educational materials and one sheets for participants
 - Participate in conference planning sessions as needed
- Note: the expectation is for this track at the conference to span at least a half day, including multiple sessions from varying experts as well as at least one off-site visit to the Clarkston Library site for attendees

Payment terms

Total payment for the above scope of work is $35,000, paid at execution of the contract.