4. Commissioner Steve Bradshaw read the following comments:

Thank you Madam Presiding Officer... Good morning everyone.

I would like to start today by recognizing the Association of County Commissioners of Georgia (ACCG) which is the group that supports the work of Georgia's counties. From October 11th-13th I was in Augusta for an ACCG conference. At that conference, I attended training classes on Economic Development and Human Resources, and both classes were excellent.

I also attended a forum where all of the candidates for Governor spoke. It was informative and very interesting to watch how the candidates interacted with each other. As you all know, we will be electing a new Governor next year.

Also, it was interesting just to listen to my fellow County commissioners from around the state. What became apparent is that all counties have challenges, just as all governments have challenges. To be certain we have our challenges here. But, let me say this as clearly as possible. DeKalb County is a great county. And I will continue to focus my energies on trying to build it up.

On October 14th, I was privileged to attend the Safari Woods Neighborhood Block Party. Safari Woods is one of the great communities in District 4. The turnout was excellent and the food was great. I would like to thank Vickie Jackson, the block captain for the invitation and I look forward to returning to the community again in the future.

On October 19th, I was honored to attend the graduation ceremony for the latest group of DeKalb County Firefighters. I think the class had 24 graduates. Obviously, we need them and we thank them for choosing the path of public service. I also want to commend Chief Fullum and his entire team for their dedication and for putting together a wonderful ceremony.

Also, on October 19th I attended the 40th Anniversary Gala for the Georgia Advocacy Office, which advocates for the rights of disabled individuals throughout the state of Georgia. When I think of some of the disabilities that some of our fellow citizens have to contend with in this life, it just makes me grateful for my own health. And hopefully not take it for granted. The featured speaker at the event was Congressman John Lewis. I had previously never met Congressman Lewis or heard him speak in person. On both fronts it was an absolute honor for me. Obviously, his story is compelling and well known. He was introduced that evening by Former Governor Roy Barnes. And it was really nice to see the two of them together. I would like to thank my good friend Tom Kohler from my hometown of Savannah, GA for inviting me to attend the event.

I also want to give a huge shout out to our Solicitor General Donna Coleman Stribling. The Dancing with DeKalb Stars event on October 14th was amazing. The program was professionally done and the dancing was tremendous. Everyone in attendance seemed to have a wonderful time and it was just a great coming together for a great cause. I want to commend our Presiding Officer, Commissioner Kathie Gannon for showing off her moves that evening. It was fun to watch. I also want to commend our CEO Michael Thurmond for showing off some of his moves as well.

One more thing. I have taken advantage of the opportunity to vote early. Now let me make this clear, I am not advocating. I am just stating a simple fact. I voted YES for the SPLOST. In fact I voted YES on the three questions that were on my ballot.

YES! YES! YES! That's all I'm saying...

Thank you Madam Presiding Officer.

5. Commissioner Mereda Davis Johnson read the following comments:

Thank You, Madam Presiding Officer, and Good morning everyone again.

I would like to begin my comments by congratulating the DeKalb Film and Entertainment on their official launch. I enjoyed attending their launch event two Wednesday's ago. It was such an honor to join CEO Thurmond and Commissioners Rader and Adams for such a wonderful event. We are inviting producers from all across the world to come to DeKalb to film their next big movie! Welcome to the Hollywood of the South.

I was so proud to join the Arabia Mountain Heritage Area Alliance for the unveiling of the Vaughters Farm Gateway Sign, which is a part of a larger signage project. I am so proud to know that not only will tourist see signs off of I-20, but know they will see gateway signs that will lead them to the Arabia Mountain National Heritage Area. I would like to thank everyone who came out to celebrate this great occasion. We were joined by my husband, Hank, my fellow Commissioner Gregory Adams and my friends, Mayor Deborah Jackson and Mayor Jason Lary.

I was so excited to join all of the Mayors throughout DeKalb for the informative SPLOST Press Conference hosted by our CEO. I was really encouraged to see that all of the cities in DeKalb are on board and ready to move forward. The unity that we saw at the press conference is the unity that makes the new day in DeKalb a reality! Thanks to our CEO for his leadership and for pulling us together. This serves as evidence that county officials and city officials can work together to better the quality of life for all DeKalb citizens.

This past Thursday, I was humbled to attend the graduation for the 106th and 107th graduating classes of the DeKalb Fire Rescue Fire Academy. The ceremony was so remarkable and I know that the memories created by this catalytic moment will last for a lifetime. Thanks to Chief Fullum for the great work that he does and for continuing to attract good talent to our world class Fire Rescue Department.

Also, I would like to congratulate the City of Stonecrest for an awesome turnout for the Atlanta Sports Complex project unveiling. The City of Stonecrest is on its way to great things!

Finally, the DeKalb County Parks and Recreation Department announces Youth Basketball and Cheerleading Registration for ages 5 – 18. Registration is $25 for ages 5 and 6 and $65 for ages 7 – 18. You may register online by visiting www.dekalbcountyga.gov/parks

6. Commissioner Gregory Adams read the following comments:

Wednesday, October 11th, I was excited to join CEO Michael Thurmond and other Commissioners at the DeKalb History Center for the launch of the DeKalb Entertainment Commission. They had a great turnout of almost 200 people and I would like to give special recognition to Shelbia Jackson for her leadership.

Saturday, October 14th The Porter Sanford III Performing Arts & Community Center was host to a SOLD OUT 1st Annual Dancing with the DeKalb Stars, a Domestic Violence awareness expo and fundraiser event with participation from DeKalb County employees, lawyers and educators. Kudos to Solicitor-General Donna Coleman-Stribling and her team on a grand event! Great performance by Commissioner Kathy Gannon and CEO Michael Thurmond.

Friday, October 13th, I was honored to attend and speak at the Vaughters' Farm Gateway Sign Dedication along with fellow Commissioner Mereda Davis Johnson, City of Stonecrest officials, and Congressman Hank Johnson and the community. Gateway will enhance the experiences of the thousands of tourists and history enthusiasts visiting Arabia Mountain annually and will welcome and direct visitors to venues of historic and natural importance, and highlight gateways to recreational activities.

Friday, October 20th, it was a pleasure to take part in and to speak at the unveiling for the revealing of Atlanta Sports City's flagship bricks and mortar structure, other new site acquisitions, the new Stonecrest entertainment district, major retail partners, suppliers & vendor opportunities, job programs & more. Core programming includes seasonal recreational sports leagues/tournaments for youth and adults and those seeking to participate in competitive sports leagues and tournaments for elite youth and semi- professional teams.

On Thursday, October 17th, I really enjoyed attending the Stephen's Industries Luncheon celebrating 55 years in construction and recyclables in various counties in the metro Atlanta area. The Processing/Recycling Facility has been diverting construction and demolition debris from community solid waste landfills since the fall of 2008.

We are looking forward to the International Night Market coming to DeKalb County on Friday, November 3 thru Sunday, November 5th. With a projected attendance of over 75,000 people from Atlanta and neighboring states, this family-friendly 3-day event celebrates diversity, culture, cuisine, and community.

To my colleague, Commissioner Gannon, job well done on her trophy placement.

As always, thanks to my district for allowing me the honor to serve. If you would like to contact me regarding questions, scheduling an event or meeting, please feel free to contact our office at 404-371-2899 or gregoryadams@dekalbcountyga.gov.
