1. Mary Hinkel, 1718 Mason Mill Road NE Atlanta, GA - Speaking for the DeKalb Citizens Advocacy Council, I would like to make known our support for the establishment of an ad-hoc committee to study voter registration and elections policies and procedures in DeKalb County. We strongly support the concept of appointing citizens to join with elected officials in reviewing the Board of Registration and Elections' policies and procedures, following on the good work of the bipartisan Stakeholders Working Group, and addressing any changes that will need to be made because of Senate Bill 202. DeKalb voters expect best practices to be implemented to ensure that voters have a fair and positive voting experience. While the Board of Registration and Elections is an independent board, it is funded with public funds authorized by the Board of Commissioners. This means that the Board of Registration and Elections needs to communicate, cooperate, and collaborate with the Commissioners and the CEO. We believe it will be important for the ad hoc committee to ensure that the work of the Voter Registration and Elections staff is transparent and that all policies, procedures, and processes are documented so that future elections are conducted successfully. We do not want the State to find cause for stepping in to suspend our county's election board

2. Dr. Ed Williams, P.O. Box 361626 Decatur, GA 30036 - Good Morning Commissioners. My name is Ed Williams. It has been almost three years since I petitioned the government to hold county elected officials accountable and to follow the constitution. Today we protest and petition the government for expanded voting rights. It has been just over a year since the Supreme Court of Georgia ruled in the case of WILLIAMS versus DEKALB COUNTY which overturned the ruling of the DeKalb County trial court Judge Gregory Adams. The Supreme Court of Georgia found the following. It partially ruled in favor of Dr. Ed Williams who sued the DeKalb County Board of Commissioners for raising members' salaries by 60 percent. In the lawsuit, Dr. Williams claimed in part that the board violated the Georgia Open Meetings Act by not giving proper notice of its intent to pass the pay increase. At the meeting, the board then voted 6-1 to pass the increase, raising commissioners' salaries from $40,530.55 to $65,000. It has been 2 years and eight months since a lawsuit was filed against the county official and the county is still fighting the obvious fact that the commission and CEO violated the law and the Georgia Constitution. There will be a court hearing tomorrow April 14th starting at 1pm which is open to the public on Youtube Division 4 DeKalb Superior Court. A local government cannot repeal a local act of the General Assembly related to their compensation. The Georgia Constitution in Article 9, Section 2, Paragraphs 1(b) and 1(c) prohibits the governing authority from setting their compensation. It is the General Assembly that has the authority to fix the salaries of the commissioners. The DeKalb law department is not serving the citizens of DeKalb County well and is spending a lot of taxpayer money to defend unlawful actions. It seems that case after case, DeKalb county prefers to spend taxpayer money fighting the defenseless actions that are clearly illegal and at best a conflict of interest and unethical. We have seen in the recent presidential election where some attorneys will say and do anything to represent their clients. Well, this should not be the practice for the employees and attorneys that work for DeKalb County. The attorneys in the DeKalb County law department should be representing the interest of the citizens of DeKalb County, not the elected officials' interests. Instead, it seems that the county attorneys believe that they are personal attorneys for the elected officials and that their advice is protected privileged communications, it is not. The Georgia Constitution and the DeKalb County Organizational Act prohibited county governing authority from having that power to increase their salaries. Gwinnett County officials should pay attention and not make the same mistake. Again, there will be a court hearing tomorrow April 14th starting at 1pm which is open to the public on Youtube Division 4 DeKalb Superior Court. Thank You

3. Stephen Binney, (no address) - Good Morning Commissioners, Mr Terry, a "Town Hall" is usually a question and answer format but what I saw instead was a "Good Morning America" interview segment. In the end you only had time to answer two questions from your constituents and one of the two questions you misunderstood. That question was about Dekalb County's Contract and Procurement process, not how the PWI committee processes the contract once it is presented to you. The process of awarding contracts by Dekalb County is as dirty as the sewage that spills onto our streets and into our rivers after a day of rain. A culture of corruption in the form of gifts, buy backs, friends with business interests, and many other kinds of corruption are rampant. LSBE abuse. Ask Denise Love about how her small company was listed on a contract without her knowledge and not paid. The RENEE Group's shell company in Doraville in order to get extra points on contracts but keep the profits with the main company in southwest Atlanta. Think of all the parks and trails you could build, the roads you could pave, and the possibility of fulfilling our agreement with the EPA if you would take a stand against our current systemic corruption. Now lets talk about the elephant in the room. Without court intervention, SB202, will allow the Republicans in the state legislature to control the State Elections Board. It will also allow that Board to take control of any County Elections Board they determine is not doing a "proper" job. This part of the bill is aimed directly at Dekalb and other metro counties. We must be prepared and put our house in order. But lately the Election Board and the County seem to be doing more bickering that cooperating. Both organizations have legitimate claims and both are also at fault. The Elections Board made a budget request of over 6 million dollars and the county did not put it in the 2021 budget and stated that maybe they would put it in the revised budget but no promises. Last year outside sources provided massive amounts of funds to help the Election Board run a smooth election. Under the new law these funds will no longer be available and the County will be required to provide the necessary money. Mr Terry, your proposal to reinstate an ad hoc committee of appointed citizens and elected officials is a legitimate request and should be instituted. Ms Hamilton and Mr Tilman need realize that the sanctity of local control over Dekalb elections is more important than their pride and ego. The Election Board needs the funding and the County's citizens need the transparency an ad hoc committee can give them. We all know that the state will look for any excuse to install a Republican supervisor over Dekalb elections. The only way to prevent that is to compromise and work together. Thank you for your time and consideration
