3. Commissioner Steve Bradshaw read the following:

Thank you Mr. Presiding Officer. Good Morning Everyone.

On September 4th I attended the Deer Creek Community meeting. Deer Creek is one of the great communities in District 4 and the turnout for the meeting was excellent. It is always nice to see citizen engagement and I think we had a very robust dialogue with the community. I would like to thank Patrice Keeter from our Transportation Department for doing an excellent job at the meeting. And I would like to thank Parag Agrawal from our Planning Department for attending as well. I would also like to thank HOA President Jacqui Steele for organizing the meeting and for the invitation. I would also like to commend her for managing the meeting in a very orderly and professional manner.

On September 7th my team and I were able to tour Blackhall Studios. WOW! What an amazing facility. The movie business in Georgia is booming, and DeKalb County has a very firm position in this space. We need to be doing everything possible to make expansion for such enterprises easier, not more difficult. I am committed to that end. I would like to thank Blackhall CEO Ryan Millsap for being such a terrific host and my friend Jay Scott for making it happen.

That evening I attended a networking event hosted by the Georgia Association of Black County Officials (GABCO). It is always a pleasure to interact with other county officials from around the state. And it was a pleasure to see Cobb County Commissioner Lisa Cupid, who was a student of mine when I taught at Georgia State University. I commend Fulton County Commissioner Marvin Arrington, Jr. for organizing the event.

On this coming Saturday, September 15th, we will be hosting a Veterans Resource Expo at the Central DeKalb Senior Center from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. I would like to thank our collaboration partners in advance for their participation:

The Atlanta VA Healthcare System
The Mission Continues
American Medical Response
AMVETS Post #44

I remain committed to taking tangible steps to assist the veterans in our community, and we are looking forward to a great event. For more information please contact my office.

I think all of us present this morning are old enough to remember where we were 17 years ago today. I will underscore the sentiments that have been conveyed by my colleagues this morning. And I will simply add that we should always be mindful of the fact that freedom is not free.

I would also like to exercise a point of personal privilege by wishing an early happy birthday to my father Mr. Raymond Lewis Bradshaw in my hometown of Savannah. This Friday he will be turning 80 years old. He is a veteran who spent a career in the United States Navy. Then spent a career at the United States Post Office. In my commission office I have a picture of his class from the U.S. Naval Training Center in Great Lakes, IL that was taken in 1957, 6 years before I was born. In a class of 56 recruits he was the only African American. I can only imagine what he had to put up with back then. Needless-to-say, I am very proud of him and his service to our county.

As always you may call my office with any questions or concerns at 404-371-4749. And I thank the citizens of District 4 for affording me the opportunity to serve. Thank you Mr. Presiding Officer.

Hello and good morning to everyone. Hope you all are doing well today. This year marks the 17th anniversary and I would like to ask that we all take time to remember and pay our respects to them with a moment of silence. "A nation divided is a nation lost, but united we stand."

Steven J. Ortlip passed away on August 26th. Mr. O, as he was known to many, was organist and choirmaster at Decatur Presbyterian Church from 1970 to 1988 and notable to DeKalb County, he was founder and director of the Young Singers of Callanwolde from 1975 to 1997. According to his obituary, the concept of a co-educational children’s choir that was community-based was almost unheard of in 1975. He was a winning choir/conductor with the Young Singers both nationally and internationally, and he composed and arranged many sacred and secular pieces of music and authored publications for training young voices.

A memorial service to celebrate his life will be held this Saturday, September 15th at 11 a.m. at Decatur Presbyterian Church. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Atlanta Young Singers or Decatur Presbyterian Church.
