

GALEO is a non-partisan non-profit organization based in Norcross, Georgia, founded in 2003. GALEO strives for a better Georgia where the Latinx community is engaged civically. GALEO focuses on increasing civic participation of the Latinx community and developing prominent Latinx leaders throughout Georgia.

The GALEO Institute for Leadership (GIL) builds future leaders in the Latino community. Our leadership program aims to develop knowledgeable, skilled, committed, and action-oriented leaders. Participants from diverse backgrounds and perspectives gain a better understanding of themselves and their role as community leaders while enhancing their existing leadership skills.
