Dear Accountability Court Judges,

In support of Georgia's accountability courts, a $4.3 million budget request, over and above last year's appropriation, was recommended as part of the Governor's Budget Report for Amended Fiscal Year 2019 and Fiscal Year 2020. During the 2019-2020 Session of Georgia's General Assembly, the Council of Accountability Court Judges (CACJ) worked to justify the need for the increase in funds for accountability courts. The final version of House Bill 31, as passed by conference committee and approved by both chambers on March 28, 2019, did not include an increase for accountability courts.

The CACJ Funding Committee has the objective of administering all grants and funds on behalf of the Council. As part of this process, the Committee reviews the spending rates of each accountability court awarded grant funds. Per the grant special conditions, courts are required to spend at least 25% of their award each quarter of the state fiscal year to avoid a de-obligation of funds. A court can submit a waiver for good cause to the Committee to explain why the spending threshold may not have been met for a quarter. This process is one that supports the overall budget to help ensure the maximization of state funds. At the end of state fiscal year 2018 and after all final sub-grant expenditure requests (SER) were processed by the Criminal Justice Coordinating Council (CJCC), the accountability courts returned just over $2 million dollars to the State Treasury, the most we have returned in the history of the program.

CACJ thanks you for submitting a state fiscal year 2020 application for accountability court funds. The Committee reviewed applications from April 25th-26th, 2019 from existing and new implementation courts. Georgia's accountability courts continue to expand in the number of courts, as well as in the amount of participants being served, which made this year's process much more difficult. During review, each court's fiscal year 2018 de-obligation amount, state fiscal year 2019 award amount, and program census were used as part of the basis for state fiscal year 2020 award decisions. Each court, existing and new, is encouraged to maximize their grant funds each quarter. Although a limited amount of funds will be available, the CACJ plans to release a supplemental grant opportunity in September 2019.

If you have questions, please do not hesitate to contact me or Ms. Taylor Jones, CACJ Executive Director, at 404-463-1453.

Sincerely,

Kathlene F. Gosselin, Chief Judge, Northeastern Judicial Circuit
Chair, Funding Committee
Vice-Chair, Council of Accountability Court Judges
