

Patricia Smith Bio

Patricia Smith was recognized by former City of Atlanta Mayor Shirley Franklin as a “2005 Woman in History” and also founded the Quinton J. Smith Memorial Scholarship Fund. She has served as President of the Hunters Communities Homeowners Association; Vice-President of the Scholarship Fund for Bethlehem Baptist Church; a Political Campaign Volunteer (DeKalb County Judge and Rockdale County Clerk of Court); and sat on the Board of Directors for the Transition House, Inc., as well as the Made 2 B More located in Conyers, GA. Smith was also an Event Sales Liaison for Callanwolde Concert Band.

As a community and social activist, Smith is an active member of the Decatur Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., and participates in the DeKalb League of Women Voters. Smith is a licensed Real Estate Agent and enjoys contributing her time to worthwhile organizations.