Justification for the Proposed Changes and an Explanation of why the County should not consider a Competitive Bid: This contract is a sole source contract for Body Worn TM Body Camera System with Utility Associates. The contract does not expire until 12/31/2026. The purchase of this technology will benefit both Animal Enforcement Officers and the citizens of DeKalb County by providing an added layer of transparency and accountability. By documenting encounters between Animal Enforcement Officers and the public, body worn cameras can also be used to investigate and resolve complaints.
