

Nick Nicolosi - Biography

Nick has been in the mall/ shopping center industry for over 20 years. Most recently, he managed North Point Mall in Alpharetta for 17 years, taking the center through 2 redevelopment campaigns and a change in ownership in 2021. He is very involved in the community in which he works and lives. He serves on the Gwinnett County Planning Commission (appointed by District 1 Commissioner Kirkland Carden), is a current board member of the True North 400 CID, and a 17 year past board Member of the Alpharetta CVB. Originally from a very small town in Central Pennsylvania, he has lived on the eastern seaboard in metro Philadelphia / New Jersey, Connecticut, New York State, before moving to Knoxville, TN.

Nick attended the University of Tennessee at Knoxville (UTK) where he earned an Undergraduate degree in Finance and then went back to UTK and earned an MBA in Finance about 6 years later. After living in Ohio, and Charlotte, NC, he moved to Atlanta in 2004 and considers Atlanta his home. In his spare time, he enjoys spending most of his time outside, whether at the dog park, hiking in the mountains (the Western North Carolina mountains are a common destination), or playing beach volleyball. Nick has a college aged daughter who attends GSU, and resides in Gwinnett County.
