

Vivian R. Ingersoll is serving as the 2017 Chair of the DeKalb County Board of Assessors. During her tenure on the Board of Assessors she has served multiple times as Chair or Vice-Chair providing leadership, stability and institutional memory at critical junctures.

She is retired Executive Director of the Atlanta Committee for Public Education and past Director of the Alliance for Human Services Planning and a lecturer in German at Spelman College. Prior to returning to Atlanta in 1986 she was Director of the Office of Executive Planning for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Department of Education and, earlier, Dean of Academic Programs, class Dean, and lecturer in German at Wellesley College; founding Manager of the Harvard University Center for Employee Training and Development; Assistant to the CEO of Nixdorf Computer Corporation, and Managing Associate of Charles Hamilton Associates, LLP.

In Atlanta Ingersoll has been an active community volunteer. Among her leadership roles she has been Chair of the Senior Citizen Services Foundation, Chair of the United Way's Fund for Community Problem Solving and AIDS Fund, a lay leader of the Pittulloch Foundation Middle East Travel Seminar, a member of Leadership Atlanta - Class of 1989, and a trustee of the Metropolitan Atlanta Group. She served two terms on the Chief Justice's Commission on Professionalism.

She is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University with a double major in Chemistry and German, has a Master of Arts degree in German from Middlebury College/Johannes Gutenberg University, Mainz, Germany, and speaks fluent German. She lives in Druid Hills.

