1. Ed Williams, (No Address) - Good Morning Commissioners: I am a resident of DeKalb County and the chair of the Concerned Citizens for Effective Government. Citizens have a right to know how their tax money is being spent and how well you are performing your oversight duty in the name of the public. The county needs to revamp its law department with more attorneys who respect citizens' rights and the law. Can it be that the DeKalb County CEO, and commissioners, and the head of the Finance and Budget department did not receive a copy of the unreacted audit report? It certainly would not make any sense to give the CEO, commissioners, and department heads a redacted copy of the audit report. The audit report was stated to have been distributed to all department heads and the CEO and commissioners. What would be the purpose of the audit report if the was not provided to the CEO and commissioners, and the public? The county invoked a security risk exception and without any affidavit, evidence or proof regarding abstract claims redacted most of the document's findings and recommendations made by the audit officer and/or agency. The county failed to indicate the reasons for each of the redactions in the audit report and how these redactions are connected to security plans or compromise security against sabotage, criminal, or terroristic acts; The performance audit was prepared pursuant to DeKalb County, Georgia – Code Ordinances/Organizational Act Section 10A which states that “the annual report, in written or some other retrievable form, shall be made available to the public through the county website within ten days of submission to the commission.” The Open Records Act states that “it shall be the duty of the agency having custody of a record to provide all other portions of a record for public inspection or copying”. It further states that it should be the intent of the agency to disclose the much information as possible. It appears from reviewing the redacted document that most of the redactions were unwarranted, unreasonable, overly broad and arbitrarily selected to protect agency officials from being held accountable instead for security purposes. I do not believe that there was anything in the audit report that would have compromised security against sabotage or criminal or terrorist acts and the nondisclosure of which is necessary for the protection of life, safety, or public property. The Open Records Act was written to make government records accessible to the public and to shed sunshine on the operations of government and hold its officials accountable. The redaction of the audit report is inconsistent with the intent of the Open Records Act and the mission of the DeKalb County government. Thank You

2. Stephen Binney, (No address) Good Morning Commissioners, Do you know that Dekalb County spends money without your approval? According to the latest Maudlin and Jenkins audit, during the last year, Dekalb County wrote out checks to contractors at least 11 times before the Commission passed approval of the expenditures. Is this even legal? Is it just the failure of our county government to process Request For Proposals and Low Bid contracts? The county has also had to extend at least 6 current contracts that were up for renewal because the bidding process had not been completed yet. Is this laziness, incompetence, or something darker. Perhaps the lack of transparency in Dekalb County goes beyond the citizens and is now creeping it's way to include the commission. We are not paying you over $60,000 a year to rubber stamp proposals after the money has already been sent out. The CEO and COO do not want or respect your potential input on these matters and I see no push back from the commission, only the acceptance of the status quo. The county's Outside Audit Department seems to be falling under the influence of Dekalb County government. The Chief Audit Executive, John Green, retired in August following unresponsiveness by the county to the departments audit recommendations. Now the acting Chief Audit Executive is retiring at the end of November following the total redaction of the PII audit. Just a coincidence? Perhaps, but I think it deserves some close investigation by the Commission. Before you know it, our Outside Audit Department may not be outside any longer. In January the state will be drawing new borders for Dekalb Commission Districts. From what I have heard our Commissioners have not really started working on this yet. This leaves us with only two months to complete this process and send recommendations to the state legislature. Two months with lots of holidays and time off. From what I have heard the commissioners are planning to meet among themselves and draw the lines. This is unacceptable. Citizens of DeKalb County at least deserve a map of proposed new district lines and time to talk about how they feel about the new districts before they are sent to the legislature in January. Public meetings in North, South, and Central DeKalb to discuss how neighborhoods may be affected by the new boundaries. Currently, it looks like the commissioners are going to be selecting their voters when the voters should be selecting their commissioners. Citizen input? What's that? Who even cares? Thank you for your time and consideration,

3. Calvin E. Sims Sr., (No Address) - Dear Commissioners: On behalf of the Community and steering committee for the Chapman Farm and Redan Nature Preserve Master Plan. We are adamantly opposed to the master plan, it was purposely slanted and influenced by the DeKalb County Parks Department and Park Pride to achieve an outcome that the steering committee and community did not support, and we consistently communicated this to Park Pride. I have made one request to Commissioner Steve Bradshaw to speak to the board of commissioners, it was declined, and today I made a request directly to you. I was not able to the speak with the County Attorney, and I feel blindsided. Therefore, I ask you to act with integrity and vote no on the Chapman Farm & Redan Nature Preserve Master Plan.

D. 10:00 A.M. PUBLIC HEARING

*The DeKalb County Board of Commissioners will hold a Public Hearing during its Regular Business meeting on Tuesday, October 26, 2021 at 10:00 a.m. This meeting will be conducted via teleconference (Zoom).
