Phone Number: 404-371-6207

PURPOSE:

In instances where a municipality seeks to annex land previously owned by the County, this land may fall within boundaries in which long-term planning and/or recent and substantial infrastructure improvements have been made by the County. This legislation seeks to develop a means by which municipalities that annex land from a county within the State are required to remit compensation to the county for the amount in which extensive long-term planning and/or recent infrastructure improvements were made by the county.
